

“The Spirit of Douglass High”

Written by Barbara A. Ervin

*As I look over my life
Reminiscing my school days at Douglass High
I never knew that the doors would close for good
Or ever knowing that was my final good bye.*

*It was fun remembering the good times
Along with the sad times too
But the Spirit of Douglass High
Always brought me through*

*Although, many years had come and gone
The Spirit of Douglass was still ringing out “Red Devils shall forever be”
Something to shout about*

*While walking along the school grounds
Staring at what was once my homeroom
Thinking to myself one day
Douglass shall rise again real soon*

*I wish that you could have seen Douglass
As I did those few years ago
A school of spirit and much pride
A school that stood out with a glow*

*Yes, “Dear Ol’ Douglass High”
Will always be a part of me
It shall re-open its doors
For the entire world to see*

SOME 27 YEARS LATER – WE’RE BACK
THE BRAND NEW
DOUGLASS HIGH SCHOOL
