

POWER OF KNOWLEDGE

There's no greater joy to no higher degree not to know freedom but to know you free

To know what is true to know what is false to know you been found to know you been lost

If any man or woman know what to believe then from that day on can never be deceived

How so clever was I introduced to a scam tutored by a fairy tale to teach me who I am

I know that when I die to appreciate my death being part of immortality but not immortal myself

Roots of a tree can live far longer than its leaves to know a matter of fact the power within a seed

Power to know to close a door no one can open the same power I know so set my life in motion

How did the seed began or how its made to grow is mystery that I've found I have no need to know

This power being what is so not what will be or was to know not how it exist to know only that it does Truth you come to believe can soon come to change truth you come to know can only come the same
